ABOUT: We know many of our members and instructors by their primary medium or signature works. However, many of them are multi-disciplined artists and fluent in other mediums!

ASLD is thrilled to present an opportunity for faculty, students and members to show us the work of their many hands in an exhibit encouraging artists to showcase multiple works of different mediums that celebrate their range, ability and "MULTI-VERSATILITY". Multiverstility features visiting artist, Camisha Butler (Atlanta, GA) who will be offering a series a workshops June 26-June 29th. To register for classes visit www.asld.org.

SUBMISSIONS

You are allowed up to three submissions. You may submit more than three, but only three will be accepted. After you provide the name and medium for each piece, you will be asked to upload images of your submissions. Please make sure your file names match your submission titles. It is not always obvious which piece goes with which title. Each submission must be a different medium, combine mediums and/or demonstrate range between mediums. Medium(s): Medium is the artist's choice. This exhibit is designed to showcase the many disciplines of each artist. Artists are not relegated to one medium and that's what this exhibit aims to celebrate. [To be clear, this exhibit is open to fiber, ceramics, paint, drawing, printmaking, YOU NAME IT.]

You will be asked to provide prices at the time of dropoff on your Loan Agreement Contract that each artist is required to fill out for insurance purposes, etc. Please do not list prices of your work on this application.
