

ART STUDENTS LEAGUE OF DENVER

Board of Directors, Youth Representative

The Art Students League of Denver provides an inclusive art community where professional artists guide individuals of all abilities to reach their highest potential. Information on our programs can be found at www.asld.org. The ASLD Board of Directors comprises members of the community who are interested in supporting the organization in its mission.

As a large portion of the ASLD community is youth, the Board has created two positions on the Board for youth representatives, who serve as non-voting members and chair the Youth Advisory Committee.

To be eligible, you must be:

- At least 16 and no more than 21 years of age at the date of election as Youth Representative.
- A member in ASLD at the time of election, and be able to display active involvement in ASLD activities.
- Willing to participate in a term from September-May (in line with a school year). You may serve two consecutive terms.
- Interested in art!

As an Advisory Member, you will:

- Attend regular board meetings (meetings are held 6 times per year, on the 4th Wednesday of the month, 4-7pm)
- Participate in establishing policies which determine the purpose, governing principles, functions, and activities of ASLD.
- Participate in ASLD activities and/or volunteer for Summer Art Market (SAM).
- Be an ambassador, a vocal and active advocate for ASLD in the community, particularly among youth.
- Work closely with the Director of Programming and Community Engagement in an advisory capacity on: youth programs, marketing and special projects.
- Receive documentation for your school on your volunteer hours completed for purposes of meeting requirements for school related activities.
- Have the opportunity to include your Board activities and responsibilities on your resume.

In addition, as a member of the teen advisory committee, you will determine and lead activities for the committee to undertake throughout the school year. Examples include:

- Jurying, curating and installing a Denver metro area teen or youth art show.
- Planning a service learning visual arts project for young adults.
